

TORRY MARTIN

Comedian / Author

Torry currently writes for "Adventures in Odyssey," a national children's radio series produced by Focus on the Family and he is also the author of "What a Character" and "Under the Circumstances," both published by Lillenas Drama. Aside from being a writer, Torry is a two time Drama Grand Prize Winner for the Gospel Music Association and now appears annually as a performer and instructor at conferences for both GMA and Lillenas.

Torry's special recipe for laughter takes the ingredients of his own hilarious personal experiences, human observations and spiritual applications and then blends them all together to result in a crowd pleasing comedy concoction called "Torry Stories."

"Torry's unique style of comedy is clearly evident in his popular "Torry Stories". I've had the privilege of hearing several of his stories having to do with his experiences living in a cabin in Alaska, and I'm still laughing. I highly recommend Torry Martin for both his talent and his Christian witness."

Martha Bolton, Emmy nominated member of Bob Hope's writing team, author of over 40 books, and also known as "The Cafeteria Lady" for Focus on the Family's BRIO magazine for girls.

"Torry Martin's style of home-spun humorous 'parables' are sure to entertain and touch the hearts of church-people everywhere ...Take Garrison Keillor and put a spiritual perspective to him and you have Torry Martin."

Paul McCusker, "Adventures in Odyssey" Writer for Focus on the Family and Author.
